HOSTEL HANDBOOK

“Make it a Home Away From Home”
Introduction

The Student Welfare Office (SWO) at Middle East College (MEC) is responsible for providing accommodation and related services to students registered in the college. The range of services includes separate accommodation for males and females supervised by professional staff, furnished rooms, utilities, safety and maintenance, shopping trips, social activities, and facilitates for emergency hospital visits. Transport facilities to and from college are provided for the residents. Hostels are strategically located to provide residents access to amenities. This handbook serves as a comprehensive guide for a smooth stay in any of the MEC hostels. The rules mentioned in this handbook are mandatory and all resident students are obligatorily required to follow the handbook and the directives from the college and hostel issued from time to time.

18.2. Other authorized officers of the college Ministry of Higher Education officials may also inspect the hostel facilities. However care will be taken to be gender sensitive while constituting inspection teams.

19. Grievance Redress:
Should a student feel the need to file a complaint or address a grievance the following procedures shall apply.

1. When a student has a grievance, he/she should initially try to resolve it through the warden and subsequently through the Head of Student Welfare Office.

2. If the student is still not satisfied with the outcome, a written appeal may be given by the student to the Academic Coordinator in Dean’s Office.

3. The Academic Coordinator would verify whether the issue was addressed to the department/staff concerned and whether due process has been followed. If it has not been followed, the student would be asked to try and resolve the matter through the warden and subsequently through the Head of Student Welfare Office.

4. If due process has been followed, the appeal along with details of the matter is forwarded to the Assistant Dean.

5. The Assistant Dean would consult the staff/department concerned to collect any further details about the grievance and the action taken. Reasonable opportunities would be provided to all parties involved to be heard. The Assistant Dean would then take an appropriate decision, which is informed to the student in writing.

6. If the student still wishes to appeal against the decision by the Asst. Dean, the student may do so to the Dean (through the Academic Coordinator in Dean’s Office).

7. Based on the nature of the issue, the Dean may constitute a Grievance Redress Committee consisting of any five members of staff not involved in the matter under appeal to look into the appeal received from the student.

8. Grievance Redress Committee shall consider the appeal and submits its recommendation to the Dean.

9. The Dean shall give due consideration to the appeal and recommendations of the Grievance Redress Committee and resolve the matter appropriately. The decision of the Dean shall be final and the same shall be recorded.

10. The student would be notified of the decision and the grievance would then stand closed.
